

Community involvement for Linda Holderness

During my three decades in Folsom, I have devoted many volunteer hours to help make this city a wonderful place to live. Some of my activities:

- Commissioner and vice chairman, Folsom Library Commission, for nine years (http://www.folsom.ca.us/depts/library_services/default.asp)
- Board member and life member, Friends of the Folsom Library (<http://www.friendsofthefolsomlibrary.org/>); vice president 2012; will be president in 2013.
- Member, Folsom Arts & Cultural Committee
- Board member of political campaigns to pass much-needed school bond
- Member, Folsom Historical Society (<http://www.folsomhistorymuseum.org/mission.htm>)
- Board member, The Folsom Symphony (<http://folsomsymphony.com/>)
- Board member of a Folsom church
- Board member of the Folsom Historic Preservation League
- A proud member of Georgia Murray's rogue task force to build a library in Folsom (and we succeeded!)
- Member, Folsom Chamber of Commerce (<http://folsomchamber.com/>)
- School volunteer
